Up Morning Session

TOMORROW'S PROGRAM.

The members of the men's club of the diocese will be hosts at a dinner at the University Club at 7 o'clock tomorrow evening for the visiting and local Episcopal clergymen and delegates to the convocation.

There will be no business or other session of the convocation tomorrow.

The part which the women of the territory are playing in the life and accomplishments of the Episcopal church in Hawaii, was clearly brought out today when, at the session this morning of the 12th annual convocation, the members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the church gathered in Davies Memorial Hall to elect officers for the coming year, listen to reports of the work of the fiscal period just closed, and to discuss matters of importance regarding the various lines of work which have been thrown out by their organization. Today is Woman's Auxiliary Day; a feature in itself and prominent because of the lengthy and interesting program prepared in such a manner as to bring out the details of every branch of the organization's work.

Today's session was opened at 10 o'clock with the celebration of Holy Communion in the cathedral, Rt. Rev. Henry Bond Restarick, bishop of Honolulu, acting as celebrant. Rev. F. N. Cullen and Rev. J. C. Villiers acted as gospeller and preacher respectively. After the service, adjournment was made to the memorial hall for business and organization.

The first order of business was the election of officers to serve during the coming fiscal year. Those chosen were Mrs. M. von Holt, president; Mrs. William Thompson, vice-president; Miss Gillet, secretary; Mrs. B. L. Marx, treasurer and Mrs. H. McK. Harrison, educational secretary.

Following the reading of the report of the secretary and the treasurer, the latter showing the finances of the Woman's Auxiliary to be in excellent condition, Mrs. H. M. von Holt, president of the organization last year and re-elected to serve during the coming fiscal period, presented her report.

Following the reading of reports, those members of the auxiliary present adjourned to St. Andrew's priory, where luncheon was served. The session this afternoon includes the reading of reports as follows:

First—Report of Junior Auxiliaries. Second—Lahaina Work Among Women and Girls. Miss Roberta Caldwell.

Third—Kapaeha, Present and Future. Miss Margaret Miller.

Fourth—A Year's Experience. Miss Mabel Schaeffer and Mrs. D. P. Blue.

Fifth—Synopsis of the work of Guilds prepared under the supervision of the bishop.

The session will conclude with five-minute talks, for which subjects have been assigned as follows:

St. Luke's Mission—Mrs. O. S. Whang.

St. Mary's—Miss Hilda Van Deerlin.

St. Elizabeth's—Miss E. Mills.

Epiphany—Mrs. Will King.

On Hawaii—H. Miyazawa.

This evening a session of the convocation will be held in the Davies Memorial Hall, at which time it is expected the business of the convention will be brought to a close. From 4 until 6:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon Bishop and Mrs. Henry Bond Restarick will hold a reception to the clergy and delegates at their residence on Emma street.

Onomea is expected to pay a dividend of 2 per cent in July, and the opinion on the street is that it will continue payments thereafter at a rate that will make the total dividends for the year 6 per cent.

This stock advanced half a point above par today in sales aggregating 234 shares, reported, at 20.50. There was an active market today, with gains in Ewa and Paha besides Onomea. In the first 55 shares of Ewa sold between boards the price was 18.37 1/2, a gain of 1/4, and 20 shares were reported at 18.50. Paha made a jump of 12.50 in a sale of 20 shares at 97.50.

Oahu was steady at 14.63 1/2 for an aggregate of 99 shares reported. Pioneer 5 per cent bonds show an advance of 25c to 100.25 for a block of $17,000.

Sugar crops and slowly rising prices of sugar are creating a decidedly improved feeling on 'change.

CHO YEE GOO SAYS HE INTENDED TO PUT END TO OWN LIFE

When Cho Yee Goo, the Korean defendant in the murder trial in Judge Dickey's court, was this morning put on the stand, he declared that he purchased a revolver early in May in order to shoot himself if again sent to prison for any offense against his wife. The prisoner swore that he bought a box of cartridges and, after filling the chambers of the gun, threw the balance of the shells away.

The man admitted shooting his wife but claimed that he had not premeditated the crime. He swore that he meant to only cripple the woman and then kill himself.

Judge Edmuns, who represented the accused, addressed the jury and declared that something less than murder in the first degree would satisfy justice. The jury went out at half-past eleven, and as it asked for more instructions shortly afterwards, it was surmised that there was a difference of opinion. At half-past twelve the jury was brought into court and they declared that they had not yet reached a verdict. They were then sent to lunch. Court will re-open at 2 o'clock.

SHERIFF ROSE AFTER HARMONY IN DEPARTMENT

Sheriff Charles H. Rose, who yesterday assumed his new duties at the head of the police department for the city and county of Honolulu is optimistic in his statement today that he has no ax sharpened for the removal of Captain Arthur McDuffie or Sergeant John Kellett of the detective branch of the service.

Sheriff Rose comes forward and makes a strong declaration for peace and harmony in the conduct of the police machinery.

It is efficiency and not politics that will ever be the watchword that will guide the new police head in the management of a force of officials who have the peace and order of the island of Oahu in their keeping, insists Sheriff Rose this morning.

"Captain McDuffie or officers in his department have no cause to fear their removal upon other grounds than inefficiency," was one statement freely offered by Sheriff Rose. He declared the story of playing politics in police department management.

"Let us not overlook one important fact," he added. "I cannot remove an official from the police or detective department without cause. Each man is now under civil service rules and regulations."

There is not much chance for politics to figure in the building up of a machine, in the opinion of Sheriff Rose.

"There have been no charges brought against Captain McDuffie or Kellett and their removal for any other reason save inefficiency is, under the law, an impossibility."

"I certainly wish at this time to set at rest a lot of silly rumors going about the city, which have been brought to my attention concerning sweeping changes to be made in police personnel," he said.

PROF. W. A. BRYAN MAY BE CANDIDATE FOR DELEGATESHIP

Political circles stirred today by the well-grounded rumor today that Prof. William A. Bryan of the College of Hawaii is seriously considering announcing himself as a candidate on the Democratic ticket for delegate to Congress. When asked today as to the rumor, Prof. Bryan declined to discuss the matter. It will be remembered that he was prominent among the candidates for governor prior to the selection of Governor Pinkham by President Wilson. Since that time he has been more active than formerly along political lines.

M'CARN-M'BRIDE AFFAIR NOW BEING PROBED BY TERRITORIAL GRAND JURY

Investigation of the McCarn-McBride incident, which led to a charge of carrying a weapon obviously dangerous to life being lodged against U. S. District Attorney Jeff McCarn, was commenced by the territorial grand jury this afternoon and, from present indications, will be continued for several days before the evidence has all been adduced and a plan of action reached.

But two witnesses were called before the inquirers this afternoon; they being Claudius McBride, the complaining witness against McCarn in the suit in the district court which was dropped on the recommendation of the assistant city and county attorney, and H. A. Russman, the Hawaiian youth who is alleged to have grabbed the revolver just as McCarn had drawn it from his pocket.

SOCIAL SERVICE WORK WILL PREDOMINATE IN 1914-15 DECIDE WOMEN

The plans of the Woman's Board of Missions of Central Union church for work to be undertaken during the coming year provide that the organization shall take up more social service than foreign mission work, according to a report presented by Mrs. Philip Weaver at the annual meeting of the board which is being held in the church today. It is the idea of the board to work more within the territory, to secure the co-operation of the churches of other denominations and, in turn, lend its assistance to these churches.

The greater part of the business of the meeting has consisted of the reading of reports on work accomplished last year. Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Theodore Richards, president; Mrs. G. H. Gere, Mrs. J. D. Marques and Mrs. W. S. Bowen, acting vice-presidents; Miss Margaretta Sheeley, recording secretary; Mrs. C. B. Andrews, home corresponding secretary; Miss Agnes E. Judd, foreign

25TH INFANTRY CONSPIRATORS GET TEN YEARS

Found guilty on a charge of conspiracy to assault white soldiers, regardless of organization or arm of service, 12 out of 13 colored soldiers of the 25th Infantry on trial at Schofield Barracks, have been sentenced to serve 10 years in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas. The case has proved one of the most sensational in army records, the testimony uncovering a plot hatched by a number of recruits of the local colored regiment to "run amuck" on the streets of Honolulu, and "beat up" as many white soldiers as they could handle. Seven whites were assaulted before the gang was broken up, and during the evening of February 24, while the 25th was in camp near the city for the carnival, a reign of terror for the white soldiers was instituted.

A full court of 13 officers tried the case, the sessions lasting eight days and producing testimony which resulted in a transcript covering more than 600 typewritten pages. The accused were most ably represented by Lieut. M. A. Palen, 25th Infantry, who had considerable experience in civilian law before entering the army, the defense being one of the features of the case. Lieut. G. V. Pecker, 1st Infantry, also an able lawyer, was judge advocate.

The evidence showed that a number of recruits from Company H had banded together for a wholesale assault. A soldier who had no connection with the affair, but who was in the guardhouse at the same time as some of the prisoners, and who overheard incriminating conversation, and others slightly implicated who told what they knew, furnished much of the evidence. The cause for the warfare declared against the whites did not come out definitely at the trial, but it is intimated that a fancied grievance in connection with the drowning of a colored soldier some time ago has something to do with the feud.

Of the 13 accused, Private Walter Jones, G. company, was the only one acquitted. Those convicted, who will spend the next 10 years at the federal penitentiary, are Musicians J. E. Johnson, Privates Walter Agoo, Ernest G. Goshy, Edgar Hunter, Lawrence Jacoba, Pierce Lane, Charles Porter, Edward Ricketts, James A. Wiley, George Willis and David Yates, all of Company H, and Musician Jack Durang of Company G.
